

PRINCESS

Alaska

2026

Princess has had a love affair with Alaska for 55 years, and they still can't get enough. Alaska is so big and impressive it earned the nickname "the Great Land." See why on newly released 2026 cruises and cruisetours with Princess, the #1 cruise line here. From Glacier Bay National Park – Princess sails more guests here than anyone else – to the mountains like Denali and world-famous wildlife, there's so much to discover. Best of all, you've got options. Eight ships, including our newest, Star Princess®. Five departure ports. 7- to 20-day sailings. 19 destinations. And a variety of cruisetours that take you into the heart of Alaska and Denali National Park.

8  ships

Coral Princess®, Discovery Princess®, Emerald Princess®, Grand Princess®, Island Princess®, Royal Princess®, Ruby Princess®

NEW! Star Princess®

19

cruise destinations

includes cruise ports of call, scenic cruising destinations and embarkation ports

4 glaciers

(Glacier Bay National Park, Hubbard Glacier, College Fjord, Endicott Arm & Dawes Glacier)

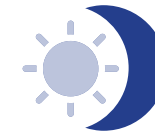

5 Princess-owned wilderness lodges

89 sailings to

Glacier Bay National Park

15 unique cruise itineraries

MORE ASHORE

late-night stay in Juneau on every Northbound Voyage of the Glaciers itinerary

5 departure ports

Anchorage (Whittier), Los Angeles, Seattle, San Francisco, Vancouver, B.C.

5    cruisetour types

26 seamless cruisetour itineraries

100% of cruisetours visit Denali National Park

5 national parks to visit

nearly 70%

of cruisetours include exclusive Direct-to-the-Wilderness® rail service: Go from ship to lodges in one day with stunning views along the way

*Travel Weekly, Best Cruise Line in Alaska, 2024-2007, 2005-2003

Why choose Princess in Alaska?

NEW! Star Princess[®]

- Enjoy seven-day voyages roundtrip from Seattle on our newest, premium ship.
- Featuring the exclusive Sanctuary CollectionSM, groundbreaking entertainment, unique dining experiences and panoramic views.

One-Way Voyage of the Glaciers

- Top-rated itinerary and the most popular option – 7-day one-way cruises.
- Features two epic glacier-viewing experiences: Glacier Bay National Park and Hubbard Glacier or College Fjord.
- Gold rush era towns: Juneau, Skagway, Ketchikan.

Round-trip Sailings

- Convenient roundtrip departures from four homeports: San Francisco, Vancouver, B.C and Los Angeles with weekend departures from Seattle.
- Visit off-the-beaten-path ports such as Icy Strait Point, Sitka and Valdez.
- NEW! Enjoy a 20-day roundtrip voyage sailing from San Francisco that coincides with the summer solstice, so you'll see all the sights – even at night!

North to Alaska

- Locally inspired and thoroughly immersive, these award-winning, partner-led programs invite you to delve deeper into the Great Land through educational events and engaging entertainment.
- Taste authentic regional cuisine, including fresh Alaska salmon.
- Voyage to the Stars: The Northern Lights – a planetarium inside the Princess Theater offers you a front-row view to the aurora borealis.
- Local lumberjacks and storytellers regale you with tales on board and ashore.
- NEW! Princess has expanded their program on land at their five wilderness lodges, elevating the cruisetour experience to (mountainous) new heights.

Cruisetours

- See the Great Land from a new angle – or three – by sea, by train and by land.
- Combines 7-day Voyage of the Glaciers with multiple nights on land in Princess-owned wilderness lodges, plus exclusive Direct-to-the-Wilderness[®] rail service.
- Options range from 10 to 17 nights on board and ashore, all including Denali National Park.

Adventure lovers, get ready

