Norwegian Sea

REYKJAVIK

The northernmost capital in the world, Reykjavik is your entry point to Iceland's natural wonders, which range from ice fields to thermal pools. The island is in a continual process of transformation much like its society, which blends Nordic tradition with sophisticated technology.

GEIRANGER

Geirangerfjord thrusts nine miles into Norway's mountains. Over 900 feet deep, the narrow fjord is lined by sheer cliffs that rear some 2,000 feet above its surface. Waterfalls plummet from cliff to fjord, and at the head of this magnificent spectacle sits the tiny village of Geiranger.

BELFAST

Stretching along both sides of the River Lagan, this graceful city of Victorian and Edwardian buildings is the birthplace of the Titanic and your gateway to the rich Northern Irish countryside of Counties Antrim and Down.

DUBLIN

A gracious and cosmopolitan city on the River Liffey, Dublin possesses a storied history that is remarkably well preserved, from St. Stephen's Green to the stone facades of Trinity College.

Atlantic Ocean

PARIS

From the port of Le Havre, you can visit charming Paris, widely beloved as the "City of Light," and the historic landing beaches of Normandy.

LONDON

In London, you can visit the Queen's official residence at Buckingham Palace, admire the extensive collection at the Victoria and Albert Museum and enjoy a pint at a friendly pub.

In far-off lands where Vikings and tsars once reigned, marvel at the natural splendors of Iceland and stand in awe of St. Petersburg's spectacular onion-domed churches. The British Isles and Northern Europe are steeped in lore, with signature storybook castles and sweeping landscapes. From delightful Dublin to the wonders of Paris, discover the region's palaces, pubs and historical treasures.

HELSINKI

Hailed as the "Daughter of the Baltic," Finland's capital is a city of graceful neoclassical buildings, striking modern architecture and spacious boulevards dotted with squares and parks.

ST. PETERSBURG

Russia's "Window on the West," St. Petersburg remains one of the world's most beautiful metropolises. Its rich architecture features a mixture of styles, from ornate Russian Baroque churches to neoclassical palaces.

OSLO

Oslo's blend of 19th- and 20th-century buildings, many decorated with woodcarvings and bright frescoes, and fascinating places like the Viking Ship Museum.

TALLINN

Tallinn is the political, commercial and cultural center of Estonia, which has been conquered and ruled by the likes of Teutonic knights, Polish princes and Russian tsars.

COPENHAGEN

Copenhagen owes much of its charm to the buildings erected by Denmark's monarchs and boasts a treasure trove of late-Renaissance and Rococo architecture waiting for you to discover.

BERLIN

A hotspot of history, art and culture, Berlin's highlights include the restored Reichstag Building with its magnificent glass dome, the Brandenburg Gate and stunning Museum Island.
